An empty office suite with two windows and a dark carpet. The room is viewed from a doorway, showing a dark wood door on the left and a light-colored door on the right. The walls are off-white, and the ceiling is a drop ceiling with a grid pattern. Two windows with black frames are positioned on the back wall, offering a view of a residential area with houses and trees. The floor is covered in a dark, patterned carpet. There are two wooden baseboards along the back wall, one under each window. On the right wall, there are several electrical outlets and switches. The text "SUITE 421" is centered on the back wall.
